

INTOLERANCE

Father O'Hern Discusses This Topic in Evening Lecture at Buffalo.

Justice and Love Are Two First Duties of Man to His Fellows.

Never Has Catholic Public Encouraged Either Hatred or Suspicion.

PROUDLY POINT TO THE PAST

Rev. Thomas J. O'Hern, Buffalo Apostolate, spoke as follows at the Teck Theater Sunday evening, his subject being "Intolerance." "Tolerance may be described as an indulgence or forbearance shown toward persons, principles and opinions which one holds very sacred and intensely dear. Intolerance, on the other hand, is an uncompromising attitude, unyielding, inflexible, severe toward persons, principles and opinions differing from those one cherishes or subscribes to oneself. Too often it is a refusal of all charity and lenience to others who may happen not to be in accord with our views and in judgment. Justice and love are the two first duties of a man to his fellow men. Tolerance is nowhere mentioned in the law. Mere tolerance does not go far enough. The Catholic church does not merely tolerate those outside her fold; she loves them with a divine charity—and that is more than tolerance.

"There are forms of intolerance not only justifiable, but necessary as well. No one who esteems virtue could be tolerant of vice. We must here make another distinction. It is one thing to abhor vice and quite another to hate the vicious.
Catholics are not intolerant of the erring, but toward their error there can be no such thing as tolerance.
If a man says that black is white or that two and two make five, we may pity him, but we do not say,
'My good sir, you may be quite right, your opinion is as good as mine.' Truth is intolerant of error.
The Catholic church claims to be a teacher of truth. She claims a divine commission to teach only what is true. Any church which claims to teach the truth can not throw the mantle of false charity over all the vagaries of opinion within its pale. If this is intolerance, the Catholic church must plead guilty, for she claims to be the messenger to mankind of the whole truth of God.

"Did Christ ever accommodate his teachings to the whim or prejudices of his hearers? Consider that scene in the desert when He was teaching the necessity of the reception of the heavenly food which He had given them. He said to them: 'I am sorry that you can not accept this part of my teaching. But do not go away; it would be intolerant to oblige you to accept that which you do not like.' The Holy Scriptures are full of such instances. He followed Himself He prescribed with even greater strictness for his representatives. 'Whosoever,' He said to them, 'shall not receive you nor hear your words, going forth from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. Amen.' I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.' For the rejection of his doctrine, made known by their words, they passed away forever. To understand them we must put ourselves in the place of the people of the time. Heresy was a crime that the State considered worse than treason and punished with death. The reformers did not hold different views. Rousseau declared: 'The reformation was intolerant from its cradle, and its authors universal persecutors.' The historian Hallam bears the same testimony: 'Persecution is the deadly original sin of the reformation.
Churches, which cools every honest man's zeal for their cause, in proportion as his reading becomes more extensive.'

"Having in view the history of our own country, we can say without fear or contradiction that the Catholic is the most tolerant of American citizens. Never once from the colonization of this fair land to the present day have Catholics given an example of intolerance toward those not of their faith. It was a Catholic, George Calvert, the first Lord Baltimore, who first conceived the idea of establishing a colony where everyone might worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. He became the pioneer of religious toleration. His son and successor followed in the footsteps of his father and established on the shores of Maryland the first government in modern times where all men worshiped God unmolested by intolerance. The principle of religious toleration embodied in the constitution is the self-same which guided the Maryland Catholic one and one-half centuries earlier. That principle has never been violated by the Catholics of this land. Never have they been guilty of exciting religious animosities. Never has a Catholic Bishop used the pulpit to inflame the dying embers of religious bigotry. Never has the Catholic public encouraged hatred and suspicion of their fellows by supporting magazines and newspapers with misrepresentation and calumny.

Toward Knownothingism and A. P. Alsm of every form they have presented a manly attitude of determined courage, and when these un-American and un-Christian attempts to stir up strife have died away no effort has been made by Catholics for retaliation or revenge. What will be the attitude of Catholics in the future? We proudly point to the past. The Catholics of America can be relied upon to maintain the principles first proclaimed by Lord Baltimore and afterward embodied in the constitution of the United States."

APPROVE THE CHANGE.

Division 1, A. O. H., held its regular meeting on Thursday night of last week and it was the largest and most encouraging assembly of Hibernians that had met in Liederkranz Hall for months. President Mark Ryan occupied the chair, with all the officers present and seemingly delighted with the grand turnout of members of old Division 1. Minutes of the preceding meeting, wherein it was decided to meet only on the fourth Thursday of each month until further notice, were well received and given unanimous approval. Dan O'Keefe, Secretary of the County Board, was a visitor and spoke in glowing terms of the St. Patrick's day entertainment and the pleasing results, all of which was a source of great satisfaction to Division 4, under whose auspices the celebration took place. President Ryan explained the routine business and then gave all present ample time to speak for the good of the order. The veteran Hibernian, Hon. John Ryan, spoke logically and with fervor, taking a retrospective view of Hibernism in Louisville and the good done by Division 1, of which he was proud to be a member for over forty years. Others followed with well chosen remarks, full of hope and cheer for the future of the mother division. Secretary Daniel McCarthy read correspondence from the State Secretary which was received and filed. The members were glad to have with them Thomas Shelly, and only two members, James Dugan and Michael Collins, now remain on the sick list. It is contemplated to have an entertainment, picnic or excursion in the near future to add funds to the treasury. President Ryan, with felicitous and timely remarks, brought the meeting to a close.

ing factor since the Czar assumed

GREAT Y. M. I. BOOM.

Grand President Robert T. Burke, of this city, and Secretary Francis J.
Carroll, of Brazil, Ind., have been doing some strenuous work in Chicago for the Young Men's Institute, where they expect to place at least six new councils before the end of the year. They have been in conference with priests and laymen of the Windy City and received every possible encouragement, and have reason to believe they will have the earnest support of Archbishop Mun-ciplein. Rev. Father Murphy is taking active interest in this movement, which would provide for Catholic boys and young men an organization similar to the Y. M. C. A. for Protestant youth. The Y. M. I. has a firm foundation and provides what has been long needed. It would bring the Catholic boys into one strong society where their wants would be provided for and their moral character safeguarded. For years the Kentucky Irish American has advocated more general recognition of the Y. M. I., the best young men's society in this country.

SECURE BEST TALENT.

Preparations and rehearsals for the Holy Cross annual minstrel show, to be given on Easter Monday and Tuesday, are well underway. The management has been successful in securing the best local talent, and from the present outlook this year's show will outshine any heretofore given.

TOOK THE VEIL.

Ten young women took the veil of the Sisters of Providence last week at St. Mary of the Woods, near Terre Haute. Bishop Chatard became the black garb when they came before him attired in bridal white, brides of the church. Among the number was Miss Catherine Dolan, of Jeffersonville, who will be known in religion as Sister Mary Doloretta.

PASSIONTIDE

The Time Set For Preparation For the Great Easter Festival.

Opens With Fifth Sunday of Lent and Has Its Peculiar Features.

Church Expresses the Grief That Should Now Fill All Hearts.

HONORED FORMULAS REMAIN

The end of the Lenten season is fast approaching. Next Sunday week, April 9, is Passion Sunday.
The two weeks immediately preceding Easter have been set apart as a more special preparation for the great festival and have received the general appellation of Passion-tide.

Although the second week is distinguished by its particularly impressive rites, yet that which opens with the fifth Sunday of Lent, commonly known as Passion Sunday, has also its peculiar features. All through Lent the altar has been draped in purple and denuded of its floral decorations, unless some saint's feast called for more joyful surroundings. During Passiontide the gloom of the sanctuary is to deepen. From the first vespers of Sunday the crucifix, which has hitherto formed the prominent feature of every altar, is to disappear from view. The gospel of the Sunday related the terrible scene in the Temple of Jerusalem, when an infuriated people hardened against their Redeemer, not content with blaspheming Him as a Samaritan and demoniac, actually tried to stone Him to death. But Jesus hid himself, says the gospel.

In remembrance of his humiliation of the Son of God withdrawing from the gaze of men till the time should come for the carrying out of his work of redemption the church suppresses the "Gloria Patri" in many portions of her public offices.
By this she would express the grief which should fill all hearts at the contemplation of the sufferings of Christ and render such songs of joy distasteful. For the three last days of Holy Week this sacred formula will be entirely hushed, and the church would gradually attune the minds of her children to the spirit which ought then to possess them.

It will help toward the understanding of various portions of the liturgy during Passiontide if we bear in mind the other objects which the church of the early ages had in view in subordinating to the one great subject of contemplation.
These were the preparation of catechumens for baptism on Holy Saturday and reconciliation of public penitents on Maundy Thursday.
The various formulas of the liturgy, when not referring directly to the Passion, will be found to touch upon one or other of these subjects.

Although the discipline of the church had undergone no change with regard to both catechumens and penitents, still these time-honored formulas have been allowed to remain, as affording matter for meditation to the church's children, who though washed from sin in the waters of baptism have yet need of penance for further offences.

CATHOLIC PROGRESS.

One Christian out of 300 pagans is the proportion today in most of China, and we recall that only ten years ago the figures were only ten out of 400. Peking has made a record nothing short of marvellous during the past year. The Procurator of that mission, Father Planche, a Vincentian, writing to the American Foreign Mission Seminary at Maryknoll, states that his mission registered 38,280 adult baptisms—

RECENT DEATHS.

Early Thursday morning Anastasia, the beloved eight-year-old daughter of Thomas and Mary Raf-erty Mulloy, 1760 West Oak street, died suddenly, her death casting a deep gloom over her home and many relatives. Her funeral will take place this morning from St.
George's church, when Father George Weiss will celebrate the requiem high mass.

William Bennett, brother of Deputy Jailer Thomas Bennett, who was held in high esteem by a wide circle of acquaintances, was claimed by death Sunday evening at his home, 325 East Kentucky street.
Left to mourn him are his wife, a daughter, Miss Ruth, and two sons, Earl and James Bennett, and a sister, Mrs. J. Wilson. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, attended by many sorrowing friends.

Following an illness of two weeks of a gripe Mrs. Mary Conners Roche passed into eternal rest Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Knoder, 101 North Thirty-second street. Mrs.
Roche was sixty-seven years old and
was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from St.
Columba's church, Rev. Father Kalaher officiating at the mass of requiem.

Monday morning the funeral of Benjamin Bode, of 427 East St.
Catherine street, was held from St.
Paul's church, where for many years he had been a devout com-municant. Mrs. Bode was fifty-eight years old and was highly respected by his friends and neighbors. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Annie Bode; three sons, Joseph, Robert and George Bode; a sister, Sister Rosa, of the Ursuline order, and four brothers.

The funeral of John J. McGrath, held Sunday afternoon from St.
James church, brought together a large congregation of sorrowing friends who had known him in life and with whom he was popular. He was the oldest son of Roger Mc-Grath, Secretary of the Board of Works, and had been a patient sufferer for nineteen months. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Roger McGrath, Jr., and four sisters, Misses Marie, Charlotte, Ella, Craig and Margaret Louise McGrath. Rev. Father Willett conducted the solemn services.

SUPREME COUNCIL COMING.

Telegrams received here Wednesday brought news that the Supreme Council of the Catholic Knights of America will hold its triennial national convention in Louisville during the second week in May. The telegrams were from the Supreme President, Dr. Felix Gaudin, of New Orleans, and were sent to Major Gen. Michael Reicher, State Secretary W. T. McLean and President Ben Kruse, of the local Central Committee. The Catholic Knights of America, now recognized as one of the very strongest fraternal insurance societies in the United States, was organized in this city thirty-six years ago, but has never met here since. The order has over 20,000 members, and delegates will come to Louisville from every State in the Union. To make arrangements for the convention and its entertainment a special meeting of the Central Committee has been called for tomorrow afternoon at St. John's Hall, Clay and Walnut, to which all Catholic Knights are invited.

K. OF C. RETREAT.

The annual retreat of the Knights of Columbus will begin next Wednesday evening at St. Louis Bertrand's church and will be conducted by Very Rev. J. R. Meagher, Provincial of the Dominican Order.
The services in the evening will begin at 7:30 and will consist of the rosary, sermon and benediction. In the morning there will be mass at 8 o'clock and short instruction. The retreat will come to a close on Palm Sunday, when all will receive holy communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass and Papal benediction in the evening at 7:30. The Holy Name Society of St. Louis Bertrand's will also participate in the retreat, the second Sunday being their regular monthly communion day.

Schools.

TWO POINTS TO BE EMPHASIZED

The tendency of governmental agencies to favor the public schools in various ways, particularly in the education of the immigrant, has been pointed out from time to time. That this partial attitude is deserving of condemnation has also been emphatically declared.
The Bureau of Education of the Department of the Interior has been particularly conspicuous in its offences in this regard, and we now note that the Bureau of Naturalization of the Department of Labor is doing the same thing. In the March report of Labor Statistics of that department we read:

"About a year ago the Bureau of Naturalization, after consultation with various school authorities, worked out a comprehensive plan for the education of candidates for citizenship. Under this plan the bureau arranges to send to the public school authorities a statement showing the name, address and nationality of each alien resident who has declared his intention to become a citizen or of each petitioner to be naturalized. At the same time it advises the declarant or petitioner of its action and of the public school advantages. It then rests with the school authorities to encourage the prospective citizens to enroll in the schools and, if necessary, to establish special schools for their accommodation."

This is indeed interesting; but further facts reveal the real situation even more clearly. "During the year 1915 the Bureau of Naturalization received approximately 350,000 applications for citizenship." About 150,000 of these men were married, 123,000 names were sent to the Bureau "to the various public schools of the communities where the various residents resided." "The public schools," it is pointed out, "have shown an earnest spirit of co-operation. With the opening of the present scholastic year fifty cities and towns were cooperating. At the end of December this number had grown to 450 and by the end of January to 566 cities and towns, representing forty-four States. Hundreds of other localities have expressed their interest, but have been deterred from cooperation by local conditions which render such work impracticable." It is interesting to add that in August, 1915, the Bureau of Naturalization sent out a news letter in which the following statement was made:
"The Bureau of Naturalization has extended its efforts throughout the United States and brought its educational movement to the attention of all Superintendents of public schools wherever there is any foreign population for the purpose of enlisting these educators in carrying forward this movement. Personal letters have been addressed to the Superintendents of schools of the cities and counties in each State, bringing to their attention this great activity, in an effort to stimulate interest in this work in every locality where foreigners reside. The bureau has also discussed its plan personally with the Superintendents of schools and Presidents of boards of education in the various Eastern cities and they have agreed unanimously to lend their support in opening the doors of the public schools for the instruction of the foreigners where there are no schools in existence, and to extend the activities of the schools established for this purpose so as to meet with the desires of the Bureau of Naturalization."

So the whole matter is revealed.

The bureau has been systematically encouraging the education of the immigrant in the public schools to the exclusion of the parochial and other schools of the country. Why was not the same information—the names of prospective citizens—given to them also? It may be said that the public schools have not taken up this matter to a great degree, but this does not properly answer the question, for it is to be expressly noted that the bureau's efforts were intended to induce the public school authorities to "establish special schools for their (the immigrants') accommodations."

There are two points to be emphasized in this regard. One of them is that our Catholic societies should make a special effort to render it possible for our parochial schools to take up this work of immigrant training for citizenship.
With their heavy burdens now, this added work would be certainly most onerous. A great per cent. of the newly arrived immigrants are of our faith and must be cared for by us.
The societies should discover means of co-operation with the parochial schools for the maintenance of this activity. At the same time—and this is the second point—we must continue to emphatically object to the favoritism shown by our Government bureaus to the public schools. If information is to be dispensed to all alike, it should be dispensed to all alike. It is to be hoped that the various departments will soon perceive the wisdom of such a course of action.

APRIL INTENTION.

The general intention for April recommended by His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. is the widows and orphans of the war. The saddest victims of the almost world-wide war that has been raging for over eighteen months are the widows and orphans whom the bullet or the bayonet or the shrapnel has robbed of their natural protectors and support. Hundreds of thousands of unfortunate women and children have been driven from their homes to languish in foreign lands, dependent on the charity of strangers. The little ones cried for bread and there were none to share it with them.
A first object of our prayers for them must be that God will touch the hearts of those whose means will allow them to feed the hungry and to clothe the naked.
Their appeal for help must not be made in vain. Let us not forget to pray that proper provision may be made to safeguard the faith of those Catholic children who may be carried to lands where our holy religion is often an object of hatred and bitter opposition. Sadder far than the death of their fathers would be the loss of their Catholic faith.

FURTHER OUTRAGE.

A telegram from Mexico City, made public by the Mexican Con-sulate at San Antonio, Texas, last Saturday, states that the Governor of Sonora has issued an order expelling all priests from the State.
The Associated Press reports that the published announcement that the Mexican Government is considering the advisability of taking over all the personal and realty holdings of the Catholic clergy throughout the republic created somewhat of a sensation in Mexico City on Monday.
In a special dispatch from Querretaro, El Democrata, the official Government organ, quotes both Secretary of the Treasury Cabrera and Dr. Siurob, Governor of the State of Guajuatato, as saying that the measure would be made effective under the old law dating back more than half a century, when church edifices were seized during the administration of Benito Juarez.

The clergy in the States of Michoacan, Puebla, Queretaro and Jalisco are reputed to be immensely wealthy in jewels, lands and works of art which are held in trust for the church. It is said that the appropriation of these by the Government for conversion into gold with which to swell the reserve to be accumulated for the redemption of the paper money issue made necessary by the revolution, would solve Mexico's present economic difficulties.
Government official declarations place the present paper issue at 500,000,000 pesos with an insignificant metallic reserve for its redemption.

A REVIEW OF THE 1914 BETRAYAL

Day by day Democrats are becoming more enthused over the outlook from a national standpoint, while on the other hand the Republicans are becoming much discouraged over the prospects of the G.
O. P. Strange to say, both owe their present feeling to the actions of one man. The Democrats are satisfied that Roosevelt, if not given the nomination by the Republican and Progressive conventions at Chicago on June 7, intends to see that the one who receives it will live to rue the day. The Republican leaders have begun to turn to Justice Hughes, not because they really want him, but because they think he would be acceptable to the Bul-moosers. From the standpoint of Republican leaders like Barnes, Penrose, etc., they rate Hughes and Roosevelt as the two lowest of their personal choices, Hughes because they don't think he can use the electoral college, and if the Rough Rider should beat them in the convention they would take the greatest pleasure in knifing him in the general election. In a conference this past week at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. Richard Derby, in New York, Roosevelt announced that he would lead the fight against the Wilson administration, if the people showed they wanted him and were willing to back up his policies.
Those in the conference who were former Progressive leaders convinced him (which was easy) that the people were demanding him to lead the fight.

If Roosevelt could have been eliminated or his withdrawal announcement secured the Republican leaders would have tendered the nomination to McCall, Burton or Cummings, and at this late date if Hughes refuses to allow his name used McCall will be selected as the man to beat Roosevelt. But this much can be taken for granted—Hughes, McCall or no one else is acceptable to our ex-President and he will only support one candidate in the Republican or Progressive conventions, and that man is Roosevelt. The nomination given to another will find him playing the dog in the manger policy and the race of 1912 will be enacted again, Wilson opposed by a divided Republican party. Another feature pleasing to the Democrats is that Hughes is losing ground daily, principally because of his Sphinx-like attitude on the questions of the day, and his nomination will drive the German-American campaign into the following, taken from the Fatherland:

"It is admitted that if no candidate develops strength enough to get the nomination on the first or second ballot, Justice Hughes will be the nominee. In this calculation the 3,000,000 German-American voters are complacently ignored.
They are to have no voice in the councils of that party. If they don't like Hughes they can vote for Wilson." The German-American can vote, which is 80 per cent. Republican, will support Wilson in preference to Roosevelt or Hughes.

Turning to State politics, the fight for control in the coming State Democratic convention is an timely topic, as it is an effort of Haly and Beckham to stage a comeback in the political arena, their move to make Rufus Vansant, of Ashland, State Chairman, to be a test of their strength.
They will be opposed by Gov. Stanley and Senator Ollie J. Ames. Against Mr. Vansant the average Democrat can say no word, but support of Haly and Beckham is impossible.
In 1914, after a bitter primary, the Stanley and McCreary supporters rallied to Beckham in his race for United States Senator, although he was a bitter pill to swallow and his Republican opponent, ex-Gov. Wilson, was well thought of by many Democrats. Here in Louisville, Wilson's home town, the Democratic organization scored a splendid victory for Beckham, over one-third of his majority being registered in this district. On the night of the election Beckham said in the presence of the writer: "I don't know how I ever can repay Louisville for its showing today." In addition he expressed his gratitude to one of the local Democratic leaders in about the same expression as above.
Hardly had he been given his certificate of election when, like a thunderbolt from the sky, came the announcement that McChesney on a prohibition platform was the programme for Haly and Beckham.
This was the last straw, and what may, the Democrats throughout the State can not be expected to espouse the Haly-Beckham slate for the coming State convention, and above all, not the Louisville Democracy, who were openly and shamefully betrayed by these political buccaners.

WHOLESALE THEFT.

Carranza's latest edict confiscating all property and possessions of the Catholic church in Mexico hardly coincides with his promise to the administration of religious liberty in that unhappy country.

LEST WE FORGET.

The unthinking Americans who join the Canadian army to fight for England seem to forget that, in the event of this country going to war with Japan, John Bull will be found fighting as Japan's ally, and Canada, as a colony of England, will be furnishing troops to invade the United States.

OF HIS OWN MAKING.

Only a few weeks ago President Wilson declared that he had learned all about the Mexican situation by listening to a sufficient number of liars. Though he did not know it when he spoke, the President was right. By listening to the liars, says the True Voice, he brought on the present critical situation. It is of his own making and he must take the responsibility for it. After our soldiers catch former friend Villa they may be ready to deal with friend Carranza. Some friends are very ungrateful.

IN THE MINORITY.

The women hounding our different legislative bodies and officials for votes for women are greatly in the minority, the leaders of the movement being that class of women who seek notoriety and only consider the home as a convenience. In the school elections in this city the voting was confined to the upper crust, who came to the polls in their electric or automobiles, accompanied in many instances by their dusky cooks and domestics, whom they used to swell the vote for their favorites, yet the vote has dwindled year by year. The women who raise the families and furnish the children for the schools are satisfied to allow their husbands and male members of the family to cast the vote.

UPHOLD AMERICAN IDEALS.

Rabbi Solomon Foster, in the course of a brilliant address before the Knights of Columbus in Newark, N. J., last week, made a plea for the upholding of American ideals and declared that men of religious belief and principle make the best citizens. "I trust that the Knights of Columbus, who represent the highest civic ideals, may continue to grow in strength and prosper," said Dr. Foster, "so that all of us, although working along different lines, may meet in purpose on the broad platform under the Stars and Stripes. Roman Catholics, Jews and Protestants, who are true to their religions, I find, are the best citizens, because they have the highest motives of citizenship. With them working in accord, all enmity, crime and other evils must banish before them."

VILLA STILL LOOSE.

The capture of Villa will not prove as simple a proposition as some people seemed to believe, for if the ruffian succeeds in eluding his pursuers for a few weeks he will become something of a popular hero in Mexico, with the result that hundreds if not thousands of Mexicans will flock to his standard. Indeed we do not hesitate to say that the one hope of avoiding a long and costly struggle lies in the early capture of the bandit.

TASK NOT EASY.

It is now recognized that the taking of Villa is not an easy task. Weeks and months may be required in its accomplishment—if indeed there is any hope that it can be accomplished. His raid into the United States has made him a hero in Mexico. Carranzistas are flocking to him, and it is doubtful indeed whether many of the Carranza chiefs desire his capture. How long Carranza can continue to appear friendly toward the United States and retain his place as first chief is another question. He is powerless to punish Villa or to maintain order in Mexico. The sending of our troops across the border is the proof that we recognize his powerlessness. And still we negotiate with him and trust to him to hold his bandits in check until we shall have found and punished Villa. Every hour increases the danger into which we have sent our soldiers. We can only hope that in some way we may get out of the muddle into which "watchful waiting" has forced us.

RIGHT MOVE.

The bill for a Government armor plant is a move in the right direction. It almost goes without saying that "preparedness" which will depend on the greed of private corporations will never amount to anything more than a fruitful source of graft. But the Government must not stop at the establishment of an armor plant if it is sincere in its "preparedness" designs. There is the question of transportation, the most important feature of genuine "preparedness," for without the facilities, for the movement of troops and war materials at first cost any scheme of preparedness will mean a heavy and unnecessary burden on the taxpayers. The armor plant bill is a great beginning; let it be followed by one looking to Government control of the means of transportation.

HUMAN VIPER.

The man who injects the religious test into politics or questions any man's constitutional right to belong to any religion he chooses is an unhung scoundrel and should be regarded as a viper in human form. Every non-Catholic in the land should prayerfully reflect on the following declaration of Rev. George W. Pepper, a Methodist minister, quoted in the Cleveland Plain Dealer:

"As a Methodist and a Protestant of the Protestants, I can not permit the opportunity to pass without uttering an indignant protest against all attempts to violate the constitution by wanton and infernal attempts to impugn the loyalty of our Roman Catholic fellow-citizens. These defamed Catholics have American hearts and American feelings, and I will never submit to the imputation which is refuted in a thousand pages of history and written in characters of blood."

REMOVE THE TAINT.

A few watch dogs of the constitution have been fighting the child labor bill, charging that it encroaches beyond the Federal jurisdiction. Assuming that it has technical faults, it does no greater violence to old principles than other legislation of recent years, passed on the assumption that Congress may regulate commerce between States. We may remember that Congress has already taken charge of our morals under the Mann act and the drug habit act. These laws are based on the right of the Federal Government to regulate trade between States. On the same theory it has made petit larceny a serious crime, one almost equal to treason if committed on a railroad right-of-way. If certain standards governing production may be prescribed in the pure food act to entitle goods to admission to interstate trade, other standards may be prescribed in the child labor bill. There are still with us men who will strain at a gnat and swallow a whole caravan of camels. The States have failed miserably in the regulation of child labor. There is not only a lack of uniformity in the laws but there is a great diversity in their enforcement. There can be no segregation of the evils of child labor as long as there is unrestricted interstate commerce. Goods made by little children will drive out those made in States which properly regulate child labor. Even the children are not protected, for they may be taken by train loads from States which are trying to conserve the bodies and souls of their children into States that care not how children may be stunted physically, mentally or morally so long as the dollars roll into the coffers of manufacturers. The bill ought to settle the child labor problem. It should put an effective stop to those who would coin wealth out of the lost opportunities of children.

The munitions and guns sent the Mexican outlaws are now being directed against ourselves.

Lent will soon pass. Spend the intervening time well and make your Easter joyful.

MONTH'S SAINTS.

The Catholicity of the church is admirably manifest in the curious assemblage of saints whom this month of April gathers together, though not all are named in the calendar. St. Benedict the Moor, a negro lay brother, is found in company with St. Ida, the courtly mother of the great crusader Godfrey de Bouillon, and with St. Hermenegild, King of the Visigoths, both honored on the 13th inst. St. Juliana, a nun of angelic innocence of life, is hand in hand with the once notorious sinner St. Mary of Egypt. On the 4th and 11th two of the most learned and illustrious doctors of the church almost jostle each other, and hard by, on the 16th is St. Benedict Labre, whose canonization not many years ago shocked the prim respectability of the dainty world because he had been all his life wilfully a ragged and not very cleanly beggar. A well known and scholarly Puritan minister of Boston, Rev. Mr. Thayer, happening to be in Rome when St. Benedict died, was led by curiosity to the house where the beggar's body lay, and was converted to the Catholic faith by the astounding miracles which he witnessed there. Blessed Mary of the Incarnation, a French damsel of high degree, won her crown among the savages of Canada, and St. Peter Martyr was a much maligned official of the little understood inquisition.

PARADE PREPAREDNESS.

President John H. Hennessy and his brother Hibernians are so enthused over the recent St. Patrick's day celebration, especially the parade feature, that at the meeting of Division 4 in Bertrand Hall Monday evening a committee was selected to begin early for a parade next year that will make them all sit up and take notice, one that will mark a record for this section. As an evidence of the good done by the recent celebration a revival is already shown by increases in membership of the local divisions. At the meeting of Division 4 the following applications were proposed: John Keane, W. L. Reilly, John Barrett, Joseph Burke, John M. Brennan, Joseph Torpey, Michael Mulloy, Martin Mullane and Patrick Farrell. In recognition of the splendid assistance given the Hibernians in the St. Patrick's day celebration Very Rev. Father T. L. Crowley and the Dominican fathers were given a rising vote of thanks and sent a letter of appreciation for their work. The division also allowed a voucher for $300 for the new marble altar steps which have been erected in St. Louis Bertrand's church as a gift of the division.

PUZZLING THE REPORTERS.

The Irish are fond of a joke, and O'Connell often indulged them. In 1843, when the monster meetings were proceeding, the Peel Ministry sent shorthand writers to report the speeches of O'Connell and his co-agitators. On one occasion, seeing "the gentlemen of the press" assembled on the platform, ready to record every word he uttered, O'Connell called out to know if they had every facility and accommodation necessary. They answered truly that everything had been done for their ease and comfort. It was in one of the Southern counties, where the Irish language is spoken as often as the English, and O'Connell, glancing waggishly round, commenced a speech in Irish, to the surprise and dismay of the "Saxon" reporters. The multitude instantly entered into the humor of the joke, and shouts of laughter mingled with the usual applause. It was a great triumph thus to have baffled the Government through its reporters, and was one of the amusing episodes of a period of great personal and political excitement.

CATHOLIC ORPHAN SOCIETY.

The Catholic Orphan Society has created an additional committee, the members of which are Messrs. C. T. Faulkner, John A. Doyle and W. G. Hume, and will be known as the Educational Committee. Its purpose is to supplement the school work of the Sisters with short and instructive talks on subjects of everyday interest. The chairman requested each boy at St. Thomas Asylum to write the committee, giving the subject they would like to hear discussed. These letters disclosed the fact that more clean current literature was needed, and those having magazines or periodicals they are willing to donate can leave them with the Hoerster Supply Company, 321 West Jefferson street. One little fellow writes:

"I like to read about the United States and how the Government is carried on. The next time you come out I would like for you to tell me something about it. We study history, but that does not tell us much about the present time. Please tell us something about the trouble in Mexico."

Another writes that what would interest him most would be to "tell us about some of the most important men and inventions in the European war. It would interest the other boys." This one complains that the visits have been too short and hopes the committee will remain longer the next time they come.

FORTY HOURS.

Tomorrow morning with solemn high mass and procession the Forty Hours' Adoration will begin at St. Joseph's church, East Washington street, continuing until Tuesday. At the evening services sermons will be delivered, and it is expected that large numbers will take advantage of this occasion to comply with their Easter duty.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Cardinal Gibbons is now in the forty-eighth year of his episcopate. The only American prelate who has ever been a Bishop for a longer period than this was Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis, who died in the fifty-fifth year of his episcopate. March 4, 1896. Now in the eighty-second year of his age, he is the sole survivor of the 800 Bishops who attended the Vatican Council, of whom he was then the youngest.

POPE HONORS HOLM.

The Danish explorer, writer and lecturer, Dr. Fritz Holm, of New York City, has received official notification from the Papal Secretary of State, His Eminence Cardinal Gasparri, that it has graciously pleased His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. to confer upon him the Knight Commander Cross of the Ancient Order of St. Sylvester in recognition of his Chinese explorations, which were mainly concerned with Christian archeology. Dr. Holm is a Lutheran.

CAUSES OF STRIKES.

According to official statements the cost of living is 10 per cent. greater than it was one year ago. It was thought at that time that it had reached the limit since it was the highest point within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." This thought was a delusion and a snare, as the prices of the necessities of life have kept on soaring, and there is no assurance that they will not keep advancing in the same ratio for an indefinite period. The increase in wages of the working man bears no reasonable proportion to the increased cost of living. In looking about for the causes of industrial upheaval these facts should not be overlooked. A reorganization of the great industries of the country on a basis of justice to the employer and the employee is demanded and it must come if we would have industrial peace.

VALUE OF HOLY MASS.

At the hour of death the masses you have heard will be your greatest consolation.

Every mass will go with you to judgment and plead for pardon.

At every mass you can diminish the temporal punishment due to your sins, more or less, according to your fervor.

Assisting devoutly at mass you render to the sacred humanity of Our Lord the greatest homage.

He supplies for many of your negligences and omissions.

He forgives you all the venial sins which you are determined to avoid.

He forgives you all your unknown sins which you never confessed.

The power of Satan over you is diminished.

You afford the souls in purgatory the greatest possible relief.

One mass heard during your life will be of more benefit to you than many heard for you after death.

You are preserved from many dangers and misfortunes which would otherwise have befallen you.

You shorten your purgatory by every mass.

Every mass wins for you a higher degree of glory in heaven.

You receive the priest's blessing, which Our Lord ratifies in heaven.

You feel amidst a multitude of holy angels, who are present at the adorable sacrifice with reverential awe.

You are blessed in your temporal goods and affairs.

PLANS BEING DRAWN.

Plans for the new Preparatory College for the Passionists Fathers in Western New York are being drawn by a New York architect. It is understood that the site will be Hemlock Grange, near Dunkirk, and buildings in a group to cost $150,000 will be erected, possibly this year. The college is for training young men for holy orders and will have accommodations for 200 students.

BOYS THEY WANT.

"What kind of a boy does a business man want?" repeated a shrewd, practical man of many concerns the other day.

"Well, I will tell you. In the first place, he wants a boy who doesn't know too much; business men generally like to run their own business, and prefer someone who will listen to their way, rather than try to teach them new kinds; second, they want a prompt boy—one who understands 7 o'clock as exactly 7 o'clock, not ten minutes past; third, an industrious boy, who is not afraid to put a little extra work in case of need; fourth, an honest boy—honest in his service, as well as in matters of dollars and cents; and fifth, a good-natured boy, who will keep his temper if his employer loses his own now and then."

Parents will do well to develop their boys accordingly.

MAKE PLANTS GROW.

Both tea and coffee grounds are good for plants and can be stirred in the surface earth. Florists obtain the grounds from large restaurants, and they help to make the rich, black earth in which plants from the greenhouses grow so luxuriantly.

REPLY WAS SHARP.

Standing by the entrance of a large estate in the suburbs of Dublin are two huge dogs carved out of granite. An Englishman going in by a motor thought he would have some fun with the Irish driver.

"How often," he asked, "do they feed those two big dogs?"

"Whenever they bark, sir," was the straightforward reply.

COMING EVENTS.

April 26-27—Minstrel show of St. Augustine's church, evening only.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Taffeta and tulle prevail in the evening frocks.

The separate skirt is in for an excellent season.

Sad but true, all silks are high priced this year.

Navy blue serge is always popular and in good taste.

Pongee will be a great favorite for the summer wash dress.

Many of the linen coats for summer follow the kodet lines.

The high boot will be in favor all during the summer months.

The handsomest new blouses are of Georgette crepe in vivid colors.

Among the wraps for spring and summer the cape is in high favor.

Skirts are a trifle longer, certainly a move in the right direction.

The black and white shepherd check suitings are in high favor again.

Floating veils of embroidered tulle in black or castor are increasingly worn.

It will take a somewhat courageous girl to wear the ultra fashionable high hat.

Black and white stripes come in for approbation, but they by no means have the field to themselves.

CAUSE FOR THANKS.

Two of the boys were working in the "loading" of a tunnel, shoveling away as fast as they could. One of them straightened up to rest his back and looking over at the other raised his shovel and brought the uat of it down hard on the other man's head.

"Have you gone crazy?" the injured man asked as he picked himself up and rubbed his head. "What happened to you?"

"Why," was the reply, "there was a great big spider on your head and it was just going to bite you!"

"Well," said the other, "thank heaven you didn't have your pick in your hand!"

USED TO IT.

At the recent cave-in on Seventh avenue, one of the victims was a very heavy drinker. His body was taken to his home, and some of the boys called there the next day to pay their respects. McManus walked in a long Prince Albert coat.

"Too bad about Dinny," says he to the widow.

"Yes," says she, "we're going to bury him Saturday. By the way, Mac, you were a pal of his; do you think you could manage to be one of the pallbearers?"

"Manage it?" asked McManus.

"Well, many a time I've carried him in; I ought to be able to carry him out!"

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

One religion is not as good as another. Such might be the case if all religions were established by men. All religions were established by Christ himself. Christ being God, could not be imperfect. Therefore it is impossible to improve on his word or work.

"Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church; feed my lambs; feed my sheep." Further, "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it," and "Behold I am with you all days, even unto the consummation of the world." Being therefore his church, the church as established by Christ as Christ's own church—the church is the Church of God, the only true apostolic church. Being the one church, there can be no other such church. Being the church where the Word of God is taught, there shall be found the true religion; and since truth can not possibly admit error, and since perfect truth prevails with God alone, then in God's own church only can the perfect truth be found.

Outside of God's own guarantee and everlasting endowment truth can not be found, so that other Christian churches can not consistently claim succession from Christ himself, and therefore their teaching is not the Christ-founded or guaranteed creed, and likewise their religion, or any other religion, can not be as good as, true as, the religion of the church founded by Jesus Christ himself. One religion is not as good as another. The one religion is that of the church founded by Christ, the Holy Catholic Apostolic Church, of which Peter the Fisherman was the first Bishop at Rome, and in turn, step by step, unbroken down to Benedict XV.—Union and Times.

COLLEGE JUBILEE.

Under the auspices of the Precious Blood Fathers the silver jubilee of St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Ind., will be observed at the annual commencement in June.

WOMEN IN ELECTION.

Two thousand women will serve as judges and clerks of election in Chicago this year, for which they will receive $7 per day.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSE.

A good pinch of salt improves any cake.

A paper over the tin keeps the top from burning.

Half water instead of milk makes a lighter cake.

If it goes down in the middle your dough was too rich.

To sprinkle flour in greased pans prevents cake from sticking.

The cause of large holes in cake is too much baking powder.

Round dining tables are smarter this season than square or oblong ones.

The most satisfactory mending thread for silk stockings is filoselle.

Olive oil is the ideal frying fat, but it is too expensive for the ordinary purse.

A pan of water in the bottom of the oven keeps the bottom of a cake from burning.

If your cake rises in a mountain in the middle it is because your dough was too thick.

Dumplings will retain their lightness if pricked open when first taken from the kettle.

Flit crochet work has again come into fashion for inserts in table linen, pillow covers and curtains.

Use a long handled brush for cleaning walls and ceilings, oiled dust cloths for furniture and woodwork, and oiled mops for floors.

THOMAS AQUINAS.

St. Thomas was born at Rocca Secca, in Italy, in 1226. At the age of seventeen he joined the Dominican order. His learning was so great that he is called "The Angel of the Schools." Once when writing there came to him from the crucifix a voice saying: "Thou hast written well of me, Thomas; what recompense dost thou desire?" St. Thomas answered: "No other than thyself, O Lord!" He died at Fossa Nuova on March 7, 1274.

SHOT FROM WIFE.

McGinnis is no Adonis, and his temper is in direct ratio to his lack of personal beauty. Mrs. McGinnis also is rather peppery of temper and is rather inclined to "get back" at her husband during the course of a quarrel.

One such altercation had been had the other evening, but things soon quieted down and McGinnis had regained his temper and thought his wife had "let go." But he was speedily undeceived.

Mac had been playing with the baby and observed: "Every time the baby looks into my face he smiles."

"Well," said wife, with an ominous gleam in her eye, "it may not be exactly polite of baby, but it shows he has a sense of humor."

GERM LADEN DUST.

Dust is everywhere, but the worst kind of dust is that which is confined within the four walls of a room. The dust is always germ-laden, because it is infested with effete matter thrown off by human bodies.

HAD EDGE ON HIM.

There was a Mutt and Jeff combination in the gang—a great big fellow working beside a little man. Reilly Walsh said to the big man, "See, here, McKenna, you're twice as tall as Dinny beside you, and he's shoveling twice as much dirt as you are."

"Well," said McKenna, "why shouldn't he? 'He's closer to it than I am.'"

WARM OVER MEAT.

The best way to warm up a roast of meat is to wrap it in thickly greased paper, and keep it covered while in the oven. By having it covered the steam will prevent the meat from becoming hard and dry, and it will become heated through in less time.

MISSION OPENS SUNDAY.

The anxiously awaited mission at St. William's church, Thirteenth and Oak, will open tomorrow morning with a solemn high mass at 8:30 o'clock and will continue for two weeks. This mission, which is expected to be the greatest in the history of the parish, will be conducted by the noted Passionist missionary, Rev. Father Adelbert, who comes from St. Louis. His assistant will be one of the Passionist fathers from the monastery at Norwood Park, Chicago. Tomorrow morning the masses will be at 8:30, 7, 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock, and during the week at 5, 6 and 8 o'clock. The evening services and sermon will begin at 7:45 o'clock. Father George Connor, the pastor, has received assurance that the two missionaries are among the ablest and best pulpit orators of the Passionist order. Father Connor will welcome all who desire to make the mission.

COLONELS VS. PITTSBURGH.

Manager Clymer's proteges will start for home Tuesday evening and the Louisville fans will be given an opportunity of seeing this year's team in action next Thursday and Friday against the Pittsburgh club in the first of the exhibition game series. The Pittsburgh aggregation will be in charge of Manager Callahan, who succeeded Fred Clarke, and in the lineup are Honus Wagner, Jimmy Viox, Bill Hinchman and other Louisville favorites. Following the Pittsburgh series the exhibition games are as follows: April 8, Oertels; April 9, 10 and 11, Chicago Cubs; April 12 and 13, Terre Haute; April 14, Harp. April 15 and 16, Frankfort. This leaves one day of rest before the opening game, which takes place Tuesday, April 18.

APPRECIATION.

At the meeting of Division 4, A. O. H., on Monday evening a rising vote of thanks was given Attorney J. J. Kavanagh for his masterly address on the occasion of the St. Patrick's day celebration, and the Secretary was instructed to write him expressing the appreciation of the order. Dr. Felix Gaudin, of New Orleans, Supreme President of the Catholic Knights of America, writes Mr. Kavanagh as follows: "I read with pleasure your speech on St. Patrick's day and congratulate you on the same—they are my sentiments. If Ireland is to get home rule we must look to Germany's victory to accomplish this."

SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The St. Anthony's Society of Holy Name church will celebrate their sixteenth anniversary on Palm Sunday, April 16, and will receive holy communion in a body at the 8 o'clock mass. The society is composed of the male members of Holy Name church, the objects being attendance at quarterly communion and the assistance of the worthy poor in the parish. The officers are: M. Reichert, President; Phil Wagner, Vice President; Edward Linder, Recording Secretary; R. M. Taylor, Financial Secretary; Frank Klein, Treasurer. Trustees—Charles Smith, Dr. J. J. Connolly, Frank Hermes, Stephen Everlin, Robert Gossom and Joseph Gunther.

MADE FINAL VOWS.

Last Saturday morning at Nazareth Miss Marie Veeneman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Veeneman, made her final vows as a Sister of Charity. Miss Veeneman had been a novice for some time past, and in religion will be known as Sister Lawrence. She was reared in St. John's parish and is a niece of the Rev. Francis O'Connor, of the Cathedral, who was present and assisted at the solemn ceremony.

HELP THIS FUND.

The chapel fund to which the stenographers of the country are contributing is growing fast. Five hundred dollars is the amount to be reached, and every stenographer sending in a dollar may give her choice for a name for the little chapel. The favorite name so far is "The Chapel of Jesus and Mary." When the $500 are gathered in the money will be sent to some poor missionary priest and the chapel will do much good to many souls. Donations may be sent to Stenographers' Chapel Fund, the Catholic Extension Society, McCormick building, Chicago.
